

GI Bill Offers Aid For Farmers

Provisions of GI Bill to Secure Land Outline Help Returning Veterans

Machinery for translating the agricultural phases of the GI Bill of Rights from promises into actual operation will be set up in Randall County and throughout Texas within the next few weeks, according to Redus H. Wells, Farm Security Administration supervisor.

Horace Gilmore, District Supervisor, at Lubbock, has called a meeting of supervisors in the sixteen counties comprising his district, at Plainview, for January 24th, where he will outline how the government farm loan guaranty will work. Mr. Gilmore has just returned from Oklahoma City where regional, state and district officials from Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico heard from R. W. Hudgens, Washington, FSA Associate Administrator, of the part FSA will play in the GI program.

The law provides that the government through the Veterans Administration will guarantee a maximum of $2,000, but in no case more than 50 per cent, of any loan made to a Veteran by a private or other lending source. The Veterans Administration will guarantee the loan upon recommendation of the Certifying Committee in the respective County that (1) the proceeds of such loan will be used in payment for real or personal property purchased or to be purchased by the veteran, or for repairing, altering, or improving any buildings or equipment, to be used in bona fide farming operations conducted by him; (2) that such property will be useful in and reasonably necessary to such operations; (3) that the ability and experience of the veteran and nature of operation contemplated are such that there is reasonable likelihood of success; and (4) that the purchase price asked for the property does not exceed the reasonable normal value as determined by proper appraisal.

In applying for a loan to buy a farm, the Veteran should obtain a Veteran's Administration form No. 1800 which is to be signed by the Veteran and the lender and forwarded to the Veteran's Administration. Veterans wishing to receive a loan for the purchase of a farm under the GI Bill may contact the Advisory Committee at the County Agent's Office for advice concerning Agricultural information in the area in which he wishes to locate. The Certifying Committee furnishes facts and recommendations to the Veteran's Administration who approves or rejects the Veteran's agricultural loan. The Certifying Committee is presently composed of three men in each county who also serve as the FSA County Loan Committee. The Certifying Committee may be contacted in each county at the local office of the Farm Security Administration.

Federal Land Bank appraisers will appraise all farms purchased by veterans under the GI guaranty. Surveys by the U. S. Department of Agriculture indicate that more than one million five hundred thousand men with farm background are now in the armed services and that more than one-third of these will probably wish to return to farming at the end of the war.

At the present time, Mrs. Williams is living in Amarillo awaiting the return of her husband, who is overseas.

Rains of Week Aid Wheat Crop

Cattle Market Is Very Active With Good Wheat Pasture Over the County

A total of .80 of an inch of moisture fell in Canyon last week.

The moisture up to Wednesday noon, as reported in last week's issue of The News amounted to .25 of an inch. During the late afternoon and night .15 of an inch was added, bringing the total to .40 of an inch. The north part of the county received considerable more moisture as the snow was considerably heavier than that which fell in Canyon.

Rain started to fall Saturday morning, and continued until late in the afternoon. The total moisture was .40 of an inch.

Canyon seems to have about the smallest amount of moisture which fell in the county, according to reports of citizens who estimated that certain sections received up to an inch or more.

The moisture puts the wheat in excellent shape. Wheat pasture has been fine, and this assures that the wheat will get a decided boost for the opening of 1945.

As a result of the good season for the year, there is much activity among stockmen, and thousands of head of cattle have been changing hands during the past two weeks. Some of the cattle are in condition to go to market, while others are being bought for pasture and the feed lots.

Postal Receipts For 1944 Hit a New High Mark

Postal receipts in Canyon jumped $4,562.63 during the past year. The receipts for 1944 were $28,708.15 as compared with $24,135.52 for 1943.

The increase is due to the large number of letters and packages which are going to men in service in various parts of the world. The total does not include the sale of car stamps or revenue stamps which are handled by the postoffice.

There has been a uniform increase in postal receipts throughout the nation, according to Postmaster Guy Harp. When he became postmaster 10 years ago the receipts of the local office were $16,000, and have now reached the above figures.

President Hill Plans for Future

Meetings Are Held by the College Presidents to Extend Aid to Youths

A variety of business was attended to by President J. A. Hill on his recent trip which included stops at Austin, Dallas, and Fort Worth.

With President L. H. Hubbard of Texas State College for Women and Dr. T. S. Painter, acting president of Texas University, President Hill served on a committee set up by the State College Presidents Association to study the problem of adjustment of salaries to the rising cost of living. The committee will report its findings and recommendations to the proper authority.

President Hill is chairman of another committee of the State College Presidents Association appointed to study the Hazlewood bill so as to bring it into harmony with the G. I. bill of rights. On this committee the other members were Dr. F. C. Bolton of Texas A. & M. College, and C. D. Simmons, comptroller of Texas University.

Chairman Weaver Baker of the Texas State Board of Control was conferred with by President Hill.

In Austin he conferred with Dr. R. L. Sutherland, Director of the Hogg Foundation of Texas, and with Drs. H. T. Manuel and A. C. Ellis. The subject of these conferences was the new vocational guidance service, which is being inaugurated at the Amarillo Center under the direction of the Department of Education of West Texas State College. The Hogg Foundation will furnish consultants who will assist in setting up and administering the vocational guidance service.

While in Fort Worth a regional meeting of the Boy Scouts Organization was attended by President Hill, who is a director for the Northwest Texas area. The regional council was attended by leaders from New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas. A feature of the meeting was a banquet honoring James T. Fitch who has served the national organization for twenty-five years.

At this Boy Scout meeting President Hill had a conference with C. W. West, of the class of 1930, who is now Area Director of the Boy Scouts with headquarters at Muskogee, Oklahoma.

Other business which the president transacted during the few days he was away from the campus included conferences with men at the Surplus War Materials office and with R. L. Thomas, president of the college Board of Regents, and with the United States Bureau of Community Activities.

President Hill was away from Canyon less than five full days.

Lt. and Mrs. Houston Bright arrived Sunday to visit at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. R. Bright, and Mrs. Bright's father, Dan K. Usery. Lt. Bright will report to Ft. Mead some time next week. Mrs. Bright will remain here until Lt. Bright receives his further assignment.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mere visited with Mrs. Jessie Rusk Friday after having been to Hereford to visit Mrs. Claude Higgins, who had undergone a major operation.

Mrs. C. M. Thomas from Amarillo was a recent week end guest in the Levi Cole home.

Help!

The Canyon News needs HELP! It needs help that every subscriber can give.

Before you change your mailing address, PLEASE notify the News on a postcard giving your old address; your new address; and the date when you will move.

If you fail to do this, the postoffice will probably have to send us two or more notices, which cost us 2 cents each; and furthermore, it will probably result in your losing two or three copies of the numbers of the paper to those who fail to send us notice of mailing address in advance.

The News is installing a new mailing system. It costs us about 10 cents to make a change in address. We have had a few subscribers who change addresses 6 to 8 times during the year—never sending us a change in advance of these changes. So many changes are being made by people who are on the move these days that most newspapers are charging 10 cents for each change. The Canyon News has not resorted to this drastic measure.

Also please remember that you may subscribe for the Canyon News for $1.50 per year in Randall and adjoining counties; and $2.00 to be sent to any place in the world. Men overseas in service will appreciate receiving copies of the Canyon News weekly.

Tax Paying Time Will Close on 31st January

Penalties and Interest Charges Will Begin on the First Day of February

The last call is made for the payment of 1944 before the deadline on January 31.

Taxes which are not paid on or before that date will become delinquent on the first of February. Penalties and interest will be added on taxes which are not paid before the deadline.

Randall county citizens are especially urged to pay their poll tax before the closing hours. As usual when it is not election year, interest in poll tax payments lags this year. However, both the schools and the city will hold elections this year, and those who fail to pay their poll tax before January 31 will not get a vote. It is very likely that the legislature will submit urgent constitutional amendments to a vote of the people during 1945. In this case those who fail to be armed with the poll tax receipt will not get to vote. Those who own other property must pay their poll tax, or this amount is simply added to the amount of delinquent taxes which they owe.

On account of the liberal discounts which were offered for payments during October, November and December the tax rolls are unusually well cleared up. However, there is always the last minute rush to wind up the collections which are late, and this year will be no different from other years.

Every property owner must keep in mind the fact that the positive deadline is January 31, and after that day the amount of his taxes increases day by day.

Local Man Sees Action In Philippines

Aboard a Coast Guard-Manned Patrol Frigate in the Philippines (Special)—Coast Guardsman Walter J. Burgess, seaman, first class, Canyon, Texas, is a member of the crew of this Coast Guard Patrol Frigate which shelled enemy shore installations at the invasion of Leyte, fought off a Jap air attack, and later greeted liberated Filipinos.

"Most thrilling sight," said Burgess and other members of the crew, "was a Jap plane being knocked into the sea. So many of us shot at it that we are uncertain as to which vessel made the hit."

"We saw a dogfight in the sky," the crewmen recalled. "A Jap plane was intercepted by four of our fighters. Three of our planes gave the Nip a sporting chance and circled away. This left only one U. S. plane in pursuit, but the fighting was over almost as soon as it started. From a low altitude we saw black smoke. Then the Jap plummeted into the sea."

The Coast Guard ship sped to the scene, but not a trace of the pilot or plane could be found, although oil and gasoline covered the water.

Late on the day of the invasion, liberated Filipinos came by outrigger canoes to visit the ship. They said the Japs had taken their clothing and their possessions, and told of the cruel treatment administered by the enemy.

Members of the crew gave the natives food, clothing, cigarettes and candy. "We fight side by side with our American brothers once more," they told the Coast Guardsmen.

Following the invasion the vessel received a commendation from the Task Force commander: "I extend my congratulations upon the skillful completion of the Leyte operation and my appreciation of the whole hearted support on the part of the Task Force."

Peter Meyers Home From Marshalls

Pfc. Peter Meyers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed H. Meyers, arrived home Monday from having spent 18 months with the Ordnance Department of the Marine Air Corps in the Marshalls. He will have a 30 day leave before being reassigned.

Pfc. Meyers has received a presidential citation for his work, but one cannot get Peter to talk. He merely says, "Oh, Pshaw, we saw some action. Yes, we lost some of our men, not so many though. We are all right. One other man and I didn't even lose a tooth."

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Thompson returned from a business trip to Dallas Friday night.

Editorials

Asked a reader the other day: "Do you look over your editorials to see how critical you have been of public problems?" Sure The News has been critical, and strange as it may seem, we reread these editorials and wonder if we have put the case strong enough. This page is one man's opinion of conditions which exist today. Does anyone think that everything is fine and rosy in the world; does any one believe that everything is right with the world, or with this nation, or with the Roosevelt administration? If there is any one person, he is certainly deaf, dumb and blind. The News tries with all its might not to be super-critical. We disdain the fellow with the bellyache; and certainly have no regard for the person who sees evils which exist in the nation and is afraid to point them out. The English government is without a written constitution, and allows any citizen the right to cuss the King and any one in his government right to their faces. Because of this freedom of speech and expression, every American looks upon England as the best governed nation in the world. When the time comes that Americans cannot express their honest opinion of our government, or point out the faults which they find with their government—look out. Dictatorship is right under our noses and there is nothing we can do about it. In times of war Americans tolerate a dictator. But should a war dictator attempt to carry on in peace time, look out for his political scalp. It will be hanging up on the shed of the opposing political party. We are confident that a newspaper without a policy or without backbone enough to speak its mind is an entirely useless publication. We hope that The News shall always be useful to our great nation in causing people to think.

An Englishman made a speech last week which is amazing. He spoke on the "Russian Menace." He is of the opinion that war is inevitable between Russia and Britain. Naturally he expects the United States to join with Britain in whipping Russia. It would be a good idea to win this war before we start another war. Of course, causing Russia sits pretty well with American audiences which have been fed anti-Red propaganda for a number of years. But the fact should not be overlooked that Hitler would have whipped Britain long ago if he had not been foolish and jumped onto Russia before cleaning up on the English. The further fact remains that both Britain and Russia are gobbling up territory in Europe which will suit their future needs, and there is nothing we can do about it. Swinging the red herring before American people is popular, but will the erection of this barrier during the war help anything. It looks as if America will be a participant in this gobbling affair. All Americans feel that we have a right to take such territory that will be of the greatest future benefit to this nation in case of another war. Certainly the world is big enough for three great powers to get along in the future, since each seems to be operating largely along different lines. America has always been able to get along with her neighbors. Civilization is sinking to a pretty low ebb when it becomes necessary to have a war every 25 years. But preaching war is one sure way to bring on another war. Telling Americans that war with Russia is inevitable is a good way to induce the Reds to hop onto us when they feel justified.

The 4th term for President Roosevelt started Saturday. The President was asked Friday about a 5th term, but laughed the question off. Having broken all precedents in regard to the presidency, Roosevelt will certainly not ask for a 5th term in the face of the opposition which developed in the campaign last year. But it is pretty well assured that he is not going to promote any candidate to take over in 1948, hoping that the Republicans will nominate another ice cold personality like Dewey. Many things can happen in four years. The problems which will be dumped into the lap of the President after the war are as vital to the future of America as those problems of winning the war.

You would think from reading all the press releases and hearing all of the radio blasts that private enterprise is hoarding its manpower to such an extent that we are about to lose the war. Take a look into any business establishment and wonder at the large number of women, and young boys, and old men who are doing the work. If you think that way about it. Representatives of the manpower commission—whatever that is—recently attended a Chamber of Commerce meeting in a certain Panhandle town. Business people were berated for hoarding manpower, and not allowing employees to go into war work. Knowing how harassed local institutions were, one of the citizens stood as much as he could, and then blurted out: "Why in h— don't you fellows, and thousands of more government employees like you who are running around over the nation harassing men, go to work in essential industries; and why do you not survey the armed forces and see to it that the army and navy are using to best advantage the 10 million men who are in uniform." The startled commission representatives left town in short order.

The Texas Citizen, edited by the perennial candidate for Governor, A. Hope Wheeler, is opposed to redistricting the state. He says that the big cities of Texas are seeking to gain the balance of power in Texas. Wheeler should read the Texas constitution, with the amendment adopted a few years ago. This amendment actually reduces the number of Representatives from the big counties. The thing that really hurts Wheeler is the fact that if a just redistricting bill is passed, Texas will be deprived of its present unbalanced representation in the legislature, and the surplus placed in overpopulated areas of West and South Texas. Wheeler is urging all citizens to bombard the legislature in opposition to this redistricting. The 123rd district, in which Randall county is located, is entitled to two representatives, instead of one which we now have. There are many East Texas districts that have two representatives with one-third the population of the 123rd. If you like this arrangement, then follow out the ideas of this man Wheeler.

A lot of unjust criticism has been heaped on the Roosevelt boys during the war. Civilians think that their boys should get as high military posts as the sons of the President. Sure enough they should, if they are equally trained, but the Roosevelt boys have it all over the average run. If the Roosevelt boys have a thimbleful of brains why shouldn't they know more about military affairs than the average American, who in peace time is positively anti-military in thought? The President has spent his life in a military atmosphere. He has never had to give a thought to the sordid problem of making a living for his family. His sons have never been deprived of a single opportunity to learn the score of our American military life. If they don't succeed in their military careers, they would be of very sorry material.

A returned soldier recently made a very pertinent point in speaking to a service club in a neighboring city. He was asked: "What do you think of the soldiers of —?" The soldier looked puzzled for a moment and answered: "Any fellow who is fighting on our side is tops with me." Perhaps all of us can get a lesson from this. This also leads to the observation of another soldier who sat down by a negro Captain in a dining car: "The Captain fought like h— with my outfit; why can't I eat with him in America?" Maybe the returning soldiers will have a different view of races and creeds when the war is over.

Stalin's armies are on their way to Berlin. After a long breathing spell Stalin has turned loose such vast forces that there seems to be no stopping of the Russians. This brings up the pertinent question: If Stalin actually takes Berlin, will he be willing to withdraw and allow the Germans to again run the affairs of Germany? Your guess is as good as ours; but our guess is that Stalin will keep what territory he conquers. Russia has paid a higher price in lives than any of the United Nations. It is not going to be very easy for Stalin to give up territory that he has bought with blood.

The President paid his political debt to Henry Wallace by firing Jesse Jones and giving the job to Henry. Wallace is not only Secretary of Commerce, but is likewise head of Reconstruction Finance, which handles billions of dollars. Jones is a hard headed banker, who has handled the financial affairs of the government well. Wallace is a notorious financial failure. He believes in handing out great sums. Like the President, Wallace has never had to work for a living, and therefore has no financial sense. All good Democrats should rush up to Washington now, ask Henry for a million, and he will double the request, regardless of the lack of collateral.

Ain't we got fun in Texas? The Board of Regents of the University of Texas is down to three members. The Governor has appointed six others, but there is such a hullaboo about these men that the Senate has so far failed to ratify their appointment. And the Governor is being petitioned to remove the three who's terms have not expired. Since Coke Stevenson still believes in the constitution, he laughs at this idea. But the politically minded women of Texas are now in the Governor's thinning hair. They petition that he appoint only such members of the Board of Regents who are pledged to the reinstatement of the deposed Homer P. Rainey. The Governor still believes in the constitution, and figures that it is none of his official business how the Regents run the University of Texas, or whom it appoints as head of the institution so long as they carry out the constitution. The women are demanding that citizens of every district of the state write their Senator not to vote for any Regent unless he is pledged to reinstate Rainey. So here is our letter: Dear Senator Grady Hazlewood: We trust you to vote for good honest citizens of Texas, whom you know to be unhampered or uncontrolled by any faction which is trying to kick the university around. When you do this, the regents will have constitutional authority to do the very best thing, as they see it, for the welfare of the university regardless of the whims or any clique or clan in the state.

Those who think that Canyon should have a big airport should stand around English Field for a few hours and observe the tremendous investment, and the complicated management of such a field. Air travel is big business, and belongs only in big towns. No one in Canyon would think of erecting a 12 or 21 story building in Canyon, yet that would be as sensible as dreaming of a big airport. It is altogether likely that every town must have a small airport, similar to the one that Canyon now has, and this may be a source of considerable local expense in the future. But big airports are only for the big centers.

America will feed Poland, according to press reports. Russia has given us authority to do this, landing food in Russian ports. The question arises: Since Russia has not allowed us to have military observers with the Russian armies; since Russia refuses to allow our planes to land on Russian soil in order to reduce our expense by shuttle bombing of Germany; wonder if Russia will insist upon our relief missions wearing Russian uniforms, as the British demand when we try to feed the starving peoples where the British are supreme?

Congress has been looking for a foreign policy for this government. Millions of citizens of America are likewise looking for this foreign policy. The President says that we have a foreign policy, but is keeping mum as to what it really is. Our guess is that it is to agree with Britain first; Russia second; feed the starving people of Europe, under the direction of both Britain and Russia; and pay the war debts of all countries involved. That's what we did in World War I. Is there any difference in our foreign policy of the present war?

The work of the Dies committee was continued in Congress in spite of the opposition of the President, Mrs. Roosevelt, the Communists, CIO-PAC combination. The vote to continue this committee to investigate un-American Activities was 207 to 186. While the House is controlled by Democrats, this vote is a pretty clear indication that the President is not going to have another rubber stamp House.

The Roosevelt dogs again hit the front page. The Republicans failed to make a campaign issue of the case of Filla, who was supposed to have secured special naval treatment last fall; now the dog of Col. Elliott Roosevelt is reported to have secured priority for air freight and bumped service men who were trying to get home. It doesn't take much to make political issues during war.

The Gallup poll shows that in spite of all the political promises, salaries and wages will decline following the war. This leads to one sound conclusion: Every citizen is very, very foolish who is reaping the harvest of high wages and not buying bonds, paying up old debts and putting aside a sizeable savings account to meet that day of decline. The administration is now attempting to get ready for a lot of "made" jobs after the war. Industry will need millions of men for civilian goods, but our foreign markets will be pretty well gone, unless we give our goods away. The wise will get ready for that day by having a sizeable nest egg to carry them over the rough spots.

This may be an "off year" in politics, but regardless of this fact every citizen has an obligation to pay his poll tax. In Canyon there will be a school election and a city election. Furthermore, several red hot constitutional amendments are being considered by the legislature. If these are presented to the voters this year, you will be caught without a vote should you fail to pay your poll tax by January 31. Pay your taxes this week, and by all means, pay your poll tax.

Horror of horrors: Hitler and his immediate band of murderers and cut-throats are to be spared of physical punishment if the British have their way. Americans protest. Stalin says nothing. One thing is sure and certain, if Stalin succeeds in capturing any of the high German criminals he is not going to ask anyone what to do with them. Stalin has a direct method of getting rid of undesirable rats.

CIO has demanded that Homer P. Rainey be reinstated as President of the University of Texas. Just what is the educational background of CIO which sets the standards for a university president in Texas? Or is it due to the fact that three members of the University of Texas faculty were fired who tried to break up a Dallas meeting called by business leaders of the state who were trying to solve the labor difficulties?

We wonder how many American boys have been killed in Greece while handing out American raised food to the starving Greeks, wearing British uniforms under the direction of Churchill? This will probably be another war secret.

Churchill again won the vote of confidence. Why not? Nothing succeeds like success. The English would be very foolish to dump their super trader at a time when the English expect to trade Uncle Sam out of his shirt.

Red Hot Buffs Yield Game by One Point Loss

Amarillo Army Air Field Sky Giants, who defeated the Buffaloes earlier in the season by a 49 to 37 score, edged out a one-point victory—46-45 Saturday evening when they met the West Texas Quintet in Burton Gym.

The Sky Giants resorted to stalling tactics the last two minutes. But it almost cost them the ball game.

The score stood at 46 to 41 in favor of Amarillo Field. But the speedy-hustling Buffs stole the ball twice for two field goals and four points—the first by J. L. Houser and the other by Captain Deak Johnson.

But the time ran out—much to the delight of the Sky Giants. The Buffaloes were on a red hot scoring spree.

With nine minutes remaining in the game, Amarillo Field held what looked like a safe 15-point advantage—45 to 30. But Coach Gus Miller's boys never gave up. They got to rolling and accounted for 15 points while the Sky Giants were able to make only one foul shot—the margin of victory—by Tommy Byrnes.

It was a good game all the way. Amarillo Field was never able to relax with the college youngsters threatening all the time.

The score was tied at 15-all just before the half. Byrnes dropped a long field goal to give the Sky Giants a two point advantage at intermission.

The Sky Giants enjoyed a big advantage in height that proved a big help on both backboards but at that the Buffaloes outscored them from the floor—20 to 19. Amarillo Field won the decision from the foul line dropping eight charity shots to West Texas' five.

As usual, Deak Johnson was the point manufacturer for the Buffaloes. Even the more experienced visitors found his "Jack-in-the-Box" shot impossible to guard. Lt. Emmett Crowe, Amarillo Field coach, alternated three men on Johnson in an unsuccessful effort to stop him.

Deak ran off with scoring honors with 25 points—11 field goals and 3 foul shots. That makes his total for the season 262 points, which should send him high among the nation's scorers.

The Buffaloes play the Clovis Field Cagers next Saturday night at Clovis.

Buffaloes Bump CAAF Superforts Friday—63 to 42

The Buffaloes zoomed to a 63 to 42 victory, Friday evening, over the Clovis Army Air Field Superforts. At half the score was in a 26 to 26 deadlock, but the first shot in the third quarter the Buffs hit their stride and rolled on to victory.

Captain Deak Johnson paced the Buffaloes to victory. He poured his hundredth field goal and his thirty-fourth free shot through the hoops to roll up a total of 234 points for the season. Johnson bagged 11 field goals and three free shots for 24 points Friday. His scoring record ranks him fourth among the nation's shot-makers.

Houser Gets Hot

The Hart House String Quartet has given more than one thousand public concerts and has crossed the North American continent upwards of a dozen times. Friday, February 2, this internationally known organization will appear on the campus of West Texas State College, as a lyceum number.

Members of the quartet are: James Levey, first violin; Henry Milligan, second violin; Cyril Glyde, viola; and Boris Hambourg, violin-cello.

Having been leader of the famous London String Quartet for twelve years, Mr. James Levey was already a familiar figure in the chamber music world when he joined the Hart House group in 1935. Mr. Henry Milligan was born in Canada and received his entire musical training there, studying a while with Geza de Kresz, former leader of the Hart House Quartet. A gifted English violinist is Mr. Cyril Glyde, who has had extensive concert and radio experience on both sides of the Atlantic. Mr. Boris Hambourg, concert cellist of international reputation, has been associated with the quartet ever since its inception in 1924.

"Great music for the glory and greatness of humanity" is the ideology of the Hart House Quartet. To experience beauty expressed through music, everyone must attend the Hart House String Quartet concert, February 2.

John W. Malone, the Stratford flash, was the defensive star of the game. His floor game was sensational as he worked the ball in. A long shot artist led the Superforts. He was the tallest player on the team but instead of using his height under the basket he looped long ones from all over the floor. His name was Fisher and he broke through the Buffs for 18 points before leaving the game with a sprain-ankle. Brown, a reserve forward, was second with eight points.

Johnson and Graves kept the Buffs in the game during the first half, Johnson bagging nine points to eight for Graves.

In the final half Johnson increased his lead and Houser got hot, hitting five long ones to run his string to six field goals.

Soon after the second half opened, Johnson poured three field goals through the hoop. Then Houser took over and connected with three in a row. Johnson followed with two and Houser added two more before anyone else could scratch.

The Buff second string was unable to get going offensively but on the defense they successfully bottled the Superforts.

Better—or Just as Good?

MOST of us aren't satisfied with buying—or growing or manufacturing—something that's "just as good." We want something better. And, in most cases, that something better comes through competition.

For competition—real competition—is something besides two people making, or offering for sale, the same goods or services. It involves a lot more. And anybody who serves the public prospers because he has something better to offer—whether it's quality, prices, service, or just a clean appearance and a pleasant smile.

Real competition doesn't come from punitive taxes, or subsidies, or any other sort of horse-race handicapping to make everybody in business start even. For it isn't equality that's needed; it's the inequalities that are the true measure of progress.

Real competition is the kind that encourages the manufacturer, the farmer, or business man to get his quality up, his costs down, and to develop new things his customers want. It's this kind of competition that produces something better rather than something just as good—that insures to the public a steady increase in the value it gets for its money. VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

Physics Dept. of WT Offers Wide Range of Work

In addition to preparing students for biological and chemical laboratory technicians, as previously stated in the press, West Texas State College also has a Department of Physics in which students may take courses preparatory not only for laboratory technicians in various fields, but also pre-engineering courses leading to an engineering degree. On completion of the pre-engineering program, as outlined with the advice of the head of the Department of Physics, a student can continue his work in any advanced engineering college or university. Physics is also required for most branches of chemical research.

In the past students who have taken physics at West Texas State have done so for the purpose of entering one of the following fields:

1. The teaching of Physics.
2. Extensive work in applied mathematics.
3. Mechanical, aeronautical, electrical, petroleum, or civil engineering.
4. X-ray operators, opticians, geo-physicists, railway engineers, broadcasting operators, meteorologists.
5. Air conditioning.

The dean of the Engineering School, University of Texas, advises that high school students expecting to take engineering must offer for admission two units of algebra, one unit of plane geometry, one-half unit of solid geometry, and one unit of physics. A knowledge of the fundamental principles of mathematics is absolutely essential to a successful study of physics. It is a deplorable fact that students are often advised that it is a loss of time to memorize the multiplication table, or to learn how to find percentages, or to extract the square root of numbers, or to solve simple or quadratic equations, or to handle common or decimal fractions.

The importance of college physics and mathematics in the security of the country is evidenced by the hour-requirement in the Army and Navy aeronautics training programs, ordnance laboratories, meteorology, and other branches. One hundred eighty hours in physics, eighty hours in mathematics, and sixty hours in other essential branches is the program set up by the Army for pre-flight training. West Texas State College can well be proud of the record made by the pre-flight students in physics, under the direction of the head of the Physics Department.

In the tests given for classification at the Santa Ana base, groups from W. T. S. C. scored average to above average, with several of the latter classes ranking in the top group, in comparison with students trained at colleges and universities in the West Coast Command.

In peace time the Physics Department at W. T. S. C. is continually unable to supply the demand of corporations and school superintendents for students trained in physics.

Rotary Club Hears Report of Red Cross Work Here

Red Cross work was the subject of the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. Guy Harp, chairman of the Randall County Red Cross Chapter, was in charge of the program.

Mr. Harp outlined briefly the history of the Red Cross. It grew out of the tragedy of war, and is best known for its work among soldiers. However, the Red Cross of America has functioned in 127 cases of disaster.

The work started during the Revolutionary War when American women began to sew and knit for the benefit of wounded and suffering soldiers. Reporters in Europe began to print the story of the need of nurses, and Florence Nightingale led a group of nurses in the Crimean War. An international meeting was held in Switzerland at which ethics were discussed. During the Civil War, the Sanitary Corps did very fine work to relieve suffering among the soldiers. This work was recognized in the second international meeting held in Switzerland. The Red Cross was adopted as the authorized emblem, and all nations were called upon to recognize workers and hospitals which bore this emblem. All nations are pledged to observe the regulations adopted. However, there are violations on both sides of this war, wholly responsible to individual officers.

Mrs. George Melton reported on the work of local women since Pearl Harbor. 5,171 garments have been made; 583 knit; 1314 kit bags have been completed, each costing $1; a total credit of 17,290 hours given to the local work, which does not include three boxes ready for shipment. The Red Cross room is open three hours three days each week, and the time of the workers who keep this room hour is not included.

The Randall County Chapter has its biggest problem now in equipping Ward B-11 of the Amarillo Field where boys from overseas who are mentally and physically exhausted are being treated. There is need of recent magazines, books, catalogs, radios, furniture, equipment of all kinds. A phonograph and radio were immediately pledged by members of the club. Each Rotarian is asked to bring books and magazines next Tuesday. These will be taken to the hospital.

J. W. Shook paid high tribute to the work of Mrs. Melton, who is carrying on full time Red Cross work in addition to her duties at the telephone office.

Visitors were: Wm. R. Curtis, C. R. Janach, H. C. Pipkin, Roy Boger, Leroy White, R. E. Wertz, all of Amarillo.

Chamberlain To Enter School of Music Soon

To climax a semester of determined work and effort on the part of members of the Buffalo Band and their director, Mr. Samuel Lewis Chamberlain, the West Texas State College department of music presented the band in its second formal appearance of this semester, when a concert of marches was given last Thursday evening. The evening's program was composed entirely of famous marches.

Mr. Chamberlain, who came to WT for the first time in the fall of 1944 and who has been conducting the band since that time, recently tendered his resignation to President Hill in order to continue his work in music at the VanderCook School of Music in Chicago. He will enroll in that school when the spring term begins, early in February. At the present he is making tentative plans for attending the Eastman School of Music the latter part of this year.

Before coming to WTSC Mr. Chamberlain taught in Abilene. He is a native of Clarendon.

Two "Tall Boys" Continue Sports Fame for Oilers

Two ex-Buffalo basketballers are rapidly increasing their popularity in the sport lights, by again donning their tennis shoes and gym uniforms to play basketball for the Phillips Oilers. Frank Stockman and Charles Halbert, former members of the "Tall Boys Quintet," need no introduction to Panhandle fans.

Stockton, six feet, three inches, was a regular with the WTSC three seasons, being captain and All-Border Conference guard in 1942. Halbert, the short six foot, ten inch, 215 pound player, played four years at WT and was twice named All-Border Conference center.

These two boys, their team mates and Coach Al Baggett journeyed twice to Madison Square Garden to claim for West Texas State the honor of having "The Tallest Team in the World." When the team and coach arrived in New York in 1942, they astonished the people, inspired adjectives, interrupted traffic, halted registration at conventions and delighted photographers as they visited the city clad in ten-gallon hats, cowboy boots and other western attire.

It is hoped that as soon as the world affairs return to normal, WTSC can again claim the honor of having the tallest basketball team in the world.

Canyon High School Groups Make Plans for Future Undertakings

Junior Class Will Conduct Next CHS Youth Center

Classes of Canyon High School held regular semi-monthly class meetings last Friday morning.

Seventh and eighth grade students met in the auditorium and Supt. J. B. Speer explained the present grading system. Both classes then saw the show on Women in War Work.

Freshmen made plans for the assembly program which they will give February 2. Several of the students paid their class dues and George Milford and Austell Burrus told some jokes. For the remaining time Max Bellah led the class in singing songs.

Sophomores planned their class programs for the coming semester. They decided to have programs consisting of readings, jokes, songs and articles on etiquette. Betty Miller read a mystery story, "The Unknown Ingredient." "Found a Peanut," sung by all the class, completed the program.

Juniors began preparations for the Youth Center to be held in February. Ray McDonald, president, appointed several students to be on the decorations and music committees with Cheri Kilchrist as chairman of both, while Bonnie Drake is chairman of the refreshments committee, Jack Ewing of the games committee, and Imelda Lange of the invitations. Remaining time was filled by a story, "Uncle Fred Takes a Fling."

Main subject for discussion in the senior meeting was the President's Ball to be held January 31. They decided to invite W. T. High students as special guests. Soft bottled drinks left over from the Youth Center will be sold at the President's Ball. All seniors planned to have their pictures made during the next two weeks.

ONE STEP FORWARD

Canyon High School has covered a great deal of territory toward one of its objectives, wholesome entertainment and recreation. Everyone present seemed to enjoy himself, and it looks as if the first Youth Center of Canyon High is a big success. The ball has been started rolling and here's hoping it's kept going.

MENTAL TONE-UP

Persons who are "stuck-up," silly or smart-alecky never have real friends. Their so-called admirers talk about them behind their backs. Friendships are the keystone to happiness, and without them life is a "flat" and dull existence. With friends one shares joys, troubles, and sorrows, which makes for greater happiness in life.

To have friends, one should speak kindly to everyone whom he meets. He should always take time to do kindly little deeds for others. One who is rich in friends is never poor.

Grade Notes

Students in Canyon Grade School are taking tests, having notebooks checked and in general ending the semester's work.

Mrs. Hazel Atchley began teaching both the first grades music Monday. They are also learning to play instruments in a rhythm band.

Alice Gresham from Borger is a new student in Mrs. L. M. Cousins' fourth grade.

Members of the fifth grade have chosen their first string of basketball players. They are: forwards, Lynn Blewett and Tommy Wright; center, Roy McCarter; guards, Raymond Bennett and Archie Davis; and manager, Ted Nicklaus.

Children of Mrs. A. K. Goodman's third grade class are participating in the March of Dimes. Last week they sent a check for Chinese Relief.

Mrs. L. M. Cousins and Mrs. Hazel Atchley's fourth grade are learning two songs, "French Market Song" and "Norwegian Folk Song," together.

Last Friday the program committee of the Nature Study Club, Kenneth Caskey, Doris Keller and Junior Sanford, presented a program to the fourth grade. Mrs. Caskey served punch and Mrs. Keller sent muffins.

The sixth grade basketball team is as follows: center, Garland Butler; forwards, Ronnie Hillier and Ray Burrus; and guards, Jack Bonds and John Brant.

During their music period Wednesday, January 17, students in both second grades who take music or expression had a recital under the direction of Mrs. Roscoe Davis. Those participating were: Joe David Black, Betty Burrus, Jack McCormick, Eloyce Money, David Miller, Larry Hungate, Rita Jo Crow, Shirley McGehee, Earl Phillips, Al Rushing Myers, Alice Mae Simms, and Ruth Ann Bolton.

Basketball Offers Party Diversion

With activities consisting of basketball and other games, the eighth grade had a party in the gymnasium last Friday from 2:40 to 4:35.

During the course of the afternoon Neil Kilchrist and Fay Dickerson dressed as the opposite sex to show how girls look when dressed as boys and how boys look when dressed as girls. Boys in 8-2 won their basketball game with 8-1 and the 8-1 girls won over the 8-2 girls.

Library Receives Additional Books

During this month the library of Canyon High School has been receiving books for both junior and senior high school students.

Most of the books are fiction, and especially recommended for senior high students are "The Green Years" and "Hunter's Moon." One book of value is "Watchwords of Liberty," a book of quotations.

New biographies for high school are "The Life of Clara Barton" and "Doctors Mayo."

Dinner Furnishes Spanish Activity

Journeying to the Mexican Inn in Amarillo last Friday evening, the old and new members of the Spanish Clubs had a typical Mexican meal.

After eating, the students attended the Paramount theater and saw "The Princess and the Pirate," starring Bob Hope.

All those who took part in this activity met at the home of Mrs. Dan F. Sanders, sponsor, before leaving for Amarillo. Adult guests were Mrs. Gladys Haines, Mrs. Marion Davis, Mrs. J. R. Wilson and Mr. M. B. Brown.

Stampede Indicates Noontime Appetites of Hungry 'Yokels'

By Leroy Hutton

It's a regular knock-down, drag-out when noontime comes around and everybody runs to be first in line going upstairs to eat in the lunchroom. I usually land at the "tail-end" just starving to death.

About every fifteen minutes the long line moves almost a foot. My stomach growls like a mad dog having a fit and down the halls the sound echoes. The guy next to me turns with a puzzled look on his face wondering if that were he or I. I feel as if I'll "cave in" if I don't get something to eat in the next few minutes.

Seniors Smirk

At last I come in sight of the doorway. Out come, like a bunch of "Striped Indian Apes," some of those "dig-in-fried," "bird-brain" seniors, who have already eaten, smiling from ear to ear.

Then all of a sudden here come a whole "she-bang" of gals who race by me like a herd of horses. (You know, there is a slight resemblance.) "Barrel-house Bessies with the fringe on top" is my opinion of these gals who squeeze in line right before me with some of their "little" friends pushing me back at least thirty-six inches. They act as if there is a greedy green monster back at the end of the line. Come to think of it, there could be one back there with all of those hungry sounds roaring around!

At Last!

After standing in line 'til I am black and blue in the face, I finally get to where I can grab a glass of milk, and acting as though I never saw milk before, I gulp half of it down by the time I get my plate. But what is on the plate? Everything I don't like: turnip-greens, cabbage, and carrots. I feel as if I am a "slick chicken with a hot lick."

Looking around, bumping into a few people and almost spilling my plate a few times, I finally find a seat. There's where the trouble begins. Everyone sitting on that bench has to stand up so I can sit down. Glancing around at my "fellow-eaters," I see some of them eating like a bunch of pigs. So before knowing it, I have backed my ears and started pouring it in.

Dishrag Is Tempting

These lunchrooms teach a fellow how to eat everything; I guess if they put the dish-rag or the cook on my plate I would eat it before I knew it, because EVERYTHING looks delicious by the time I get up there.

I declare that I'll never eat there again, but another day comes around and there I am right on the "tail-end" again. But just think, when the snow is about "neck deep" how good a hot meal can taste. "OH BROTHER!"

Coming to Olympic Theatre, "Since You Went Away," Midnight Feb. 3, Feb 4 and 5. 47c

The salesman stopped his car at a farmhouse and asked the way to the nearest hotel. The farmer pointed down the road.

"You turn left at the school-house," he advised. "Then you go straight ahead till you get to Gad Shor's house. Then you take the left fork in the road and keep on for five miles."

The salesman nodded. "That's clear enough," he said. "And where does that bring me?" The farmer smiled. "Wal," he announced, "that brings you right back to where we're standing now. Right here."

The salesman's eyes popped. "Right here!" he echoed. "But I don't understand. Why should I come back here?"

The farmer shifted his plug of tobacco.

"To get the rest of the directions," he explained. "If I told you them all at once, you might get confused."

STUDENTS, A HOLIDAY!

As the old saying goes, the blackest of clouds has a silver lining, and even mid-term exams bring on a little good, for classes of Canyon Public Schools will NOT BE IN SESSION tomorrow, January 26, because teachers will be busy grading exam papers.

Now, aren't you sorry you gripped so much about those exams?

Here are a few rules that we may all profit by according to sportsmanship guidance.

1. Be courteous to officials and accept their decisions in a sportsmanlike manner.

2. During free throws "silence is golden."

3. "Booing" is the worst form of sportsmanship known to the American public.

4. Every game is of vital importance to someone. Be courteous, whether you are interested or not.

5. Cheer your team to victory if you can, but accept defeat in a gracious manner.

How about a few new faces showing up at the next basketball game?

popular clerk has "worn out" two court houses and is serving in the third.

One of the most interesting lawsuits in the history of Eastland County wasn't tried in the courtroom at Eastland but in justice court in Cisco back in the '20's. A one-eyed mule and a 1912 model Brush automobile collided on the main street. (Can you remember the Brush? It had a door at the back and it cranked on the side, like a phonograph, and you steered it with a stick instead of a wheel.)

The case drew such a big crowd that the 'squire moved from his little courtroom over to the city hall auditorium. The trial took all day and then everybody went home for supper and came back that night for the argument.

W. J. Barnes (now a prominent Houston attorney) represented the defendant and he brought out that the value of the mule was only $50, yet the owner was claiming $150 damages to the animal! In fact, Barnes made such a convincing speech that the jury decided that the auto didn't hit the mule at all but that the mule jumped in front of the auto—and so the owner of the Brush was awarded damages!

The first battle of the Civil War was fought near Washington, D. C. Hundreds of sightseers, with picnic baskets, went out to watch the fun. It was not amusing!

In this hour when the shadow of death is falling across so many homes, the man (or woman) who has nothing more serious to worry about than the cigaret shortage has nothing to worry about.

And another thing that puzzles me is, if there is a paper shortage in this country (and I'm sure there is) then why do the big metropolitan papers devote so much space to the Chaplin case and other Hollywood filth?

And why couldn't they cut down on the size of those enormous pictures on the Sunday society page?

Organizations Show Gratitude to WT College

Two important Texas organizations have expressed appreciation of West Texas State College during the past two weeks through the advertisements which they have sponsored in the Amarillo Sunday Globe News.

On January 14 the Interstate Theaters of Amarillo presented an advertisement setting forth the achievements of Dr. John E. Younger, Aeronautical expert and graduate of the college in the class of 1912. Dr. Younger is now Chairman of the Department of Mechanical Aeronautical Engineering at the University of Maryland. He also serves as a consultant to the United States Army and numerous aircraft manufacturers.

Dr. Younger was born at Canyon. He has been interested in aeronautics since before World War I. In addition to teaching and extensive travel he has written six books, all on aviation.

The Panhandle Laundry and Dry Cleaning Company, of which Clay Thornton is manager, furnished the fifteen-inch three column advertisement of January 21.

This advertisement featured the long service of West Texas State College as a training place for teachers and told of the experience of Miss Corinne Nash, a member of the class of 1925, who is now Elementary Supervisor and Director of Curriculum of the Waco Public Schools.

These two advertisements were the second and third in a series of fifty-two which have been planned through the generosity of friends of the college. They will appear each Sunday throughout 1945 and may continue even longer.

The presentation next Sunday will be of particular interest to athletes.

Lions Hear English Speaker and Visit Hereford Lions

Two meetings were held by the Canyon Lions Club last week, so none will be held this week.

The regular meeting was held Thursday when Col. F. J. Miles of London spoke on the Russian Menace. Col. Miles was Chaplain General in World War I. He is secretary of the Russian Missionary Society, and is visiting many cities in America on a lecture tour.

The speaker told of the vast territory, resources and population of Russia. He predicted that Russia will hold after the war the territory she is taking today. He further predicted that as soon as Germany is whipped that Russia would turn on Japan, take back the territory she lost to Japan in their former war, and would annex provinces of Northern China. Russia will do this because there is no one capable of stopping the Reds.

Russia has attempted the greatest socialistic experiment the world has ever seen, and is making a success of this experiment.

The speaker predicted dire things for England and the United States after the war when Russia started the wheels of commerce and started dumping goods on our markets.

He compared England to America, illustrating how the people of England had suffered during the war in comparison to the few luxuries which Americans had given up for the war effort.

The people of Russia are not Communists at heart, but are deeply religious. The Bible has been banned from Russia since 1929, but the American Bible Society is sending millions of copies to Russia, which are read eagerly by the people.

The speaker ended by proclaiming that the greatest need of America was a return to religion.

Visitors were: Seaman IC Loyd Newby, T. A. Black, C. A. Pierle, Lee Johnson, J. W. Shook, Clyde Warwick, of Canyon; O. W. Chapman and Rev. H. A. Summerville, both of Amarillo.

The local club was entertained Friday night by the Hereford Lions Club with a dinner at the Internment Camp where several thousand Italian prisoners of war are being held.

Chaplain Taggart Will Speak on the Baptist Hour

Chaplain (Major) William C. Taggart, attached to the AAF Regional Station Hospital No. 1 of Miami, Florida, is announced by S. F. Lowe, Director of the Radio Committee; S. B. C., of Atlanta, Georgia, as the speaker for the Baptist Hour next Sunday morning, January 28th.

Major Taggart, according to Mr. Lowe, was Chaplain before Pearl Harbor, and has ministered to military men in training camps, encouraged and strengthened them as they entered fierce combat, held the hands of many as they died, and buried bodies of some in foreign soil. Knowing the experiences of our military men thus, he will be of unusual interest to all America at this time.

His subject, "My Fighting Congregation," is the title of his book which tells of his experiences as a Chaplain and is used by permission of the publishers, Doubleday, Doran & Company.

He resigned the pastorate of a church in Wichita Falls, Texas, to enter the service as Chaplain, and is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University and the Southwestern Baptist Seminary in Texas.

Native Boys Sing "Pistol Packin' Mama" for Yanks

From L. T. Davault, ex-student of the 30's, Reverend C. C. Armstrong has recently received an interesting letter. At the time of its writing Davault was stationed in New Guinea. He says, "I find the country a very beautiful place although it is very hot and humid. I am with an aerial mapping unit which is a well-organized group and which is made up of mighty fine men. Our camp is at the foot of rugged mountains overlooking the air strip. There is plenty of shade and two streams of clear running water. The country is wooded. The trees are mahogany, coconut, banana, cacao and bread fruit. There is an abundance of fish and game. The natives are of the Negroid race, but the adults are only about five feet high. They seem very intelligent and learn rapidly. I was amused the other day when several little boys about ten years old serenaded us by singing "Pistol Packin' Mama." Even though their songs are modern they still hunt with bows and arrows and spears."

Pastor to Preach on Where are the Dead?

Dr. Roy L. Johnson, pastor of First Baptist Church in Canyon, will preach Sunday morning, Jan. 28, at 11 o'clock, on "Where are the Dead?" In a day when so many are dying at home and abroad, and when so many theories are extant about the dead, this subject ought to be of interest to many people. Dr. Johnson believes that the Bible has a divine answer to this question and will seek to make it plain to his audience Sunday morning.
At the evening hour he will continue his series of sermons on great nights of the Bible with one on "A Night with Wild Beasts."
Attendance was good last Sunday in spite of weather conditions and muddy roads. Sunday School average is still more than fifty above that of a year ago, and Virgil Henson, the General Superintendent, is grateful for such good co-operation. Training Union is held at 7:15 and the evening preaching service is at 8:00.
